

MICKNICS WEDDINGS

MICKNICS | EVENT PLANNING, STYLING & DESIGN

Thoughtful planning and styling throughout Maryland, Washington, DC, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware.

WELCOME TO MICKNICS

Your wedding should be a reflection of your love story, your personalities, and everything that makes your celebration uniquely yours.

At MICKNICS, we believe the planning experience should feel just as thoughtful as the celebration itself.

We're a full-service event planning, coordination, and styling company specializing in weddings and meaningful celebrations. Whether you're just beginning your planning journey, looking for someone to bring the final details together, or dreaming of a beautifully styled wedding, we're here to help.

Our services are designed to meet you where you are, offering the flexibility to choose the support that best fits your needs.

THREE WAYS WE BRING YOUR WEDDING TO LIFE

Wedding Planning
From finding the right vendors to organizing your budget, timelines, and logistics, we help guide the planning process so you can focus on enjoying your engagement.

Wedding Coordination
You've done the planning. Now let us bring everything together. We'll manage the final details, coordinate your vendors, and oversee the wedding day so you can be fully present.

Design & Styling
From romantic tablescapes and faux floral arrangements to ceremony décor and specialty installations, we bring your wedding aesthetic to life through thoughtfully curated details.

WHAT MAKES MICKNICS DIFFERENT?

Flexible services. Book planning, coordination, or styling individually, or combine services for a more comprehensive experience.

A personal approach. We take the time to understand your vision, priorities, and the experience you want to create.

Our own décor collection. With a growing inventory of faux florals, arches, and decorative rentals, we can help bring your design together without requiring you to coordinate every decorative detail with multiple vendors.

Support from start to finish. From your first consultation to the final moments of your celebration, our goal is to make the experience feel organized, thoughtful, and enjoyable.

However you envision your wedding, we'd love to help bring it to life.

WEDDING COORDINATION

You've planned the wedding. We'll take it from here.

You've spent months planning, making decisions, and bringing all the pieces together. When your wedding day finally arrives, you deserve to enjoy every moment without worrying about vendor arrivals, timelines, or what needs to happen next.

Our Wedding Coordination collections are designed for couples who have handled the planning and want an experienced professional to finalize the details, coordinate their vendors, and oversee the celebration.

Whether you need support for part of the day or a more hands-on approach leading up to your wedding, we'll help you find the right fit.
